Are some diets “mass murder”?

In the penultimate sentence of this Feature (BMJ 2014;349:g7654, doi:10.1136/bmj.g7654), the quotation from Nancy Harmon Jenkins contains a slight error. This should have read: “The food world is particularly prey to corruption [not ‘consumption’ as published], because so much money is made on food and so much depends on talk and especially the opinions of experts.”
