Resolved: That the 16 candidates not resident in the area of any Branch be elected members of the British Medical Association, and that the remaining 97 be allowed the privileges of membership during the annual meeting pending their election by the Branches.

Resolved: That the candidate whose form of application has been forwarded by Dr. Munro Moir be also allowed to attend the annual meeting pending election.

Resolved: That Dr. G. B. Ferguson and Mr. Andrew Clark be nominated for election as Vice-Presidents in accordance with By-Law 36.

Resolved: That a temporary officer be appointed to carry on the duties under the By-laws until the end of the year, and for his services he should be granted an honorarium of £250, and the selection be made by the Council.

Resolved: That the appointment of a temporary officer be made at the Council Meeting to-morrow.

Resolved: That an advertisement be issued for a permanent official to be elected at the October meeting of the Council upon the following conditions:—

1. A candidate should be a registered medical practitioner.
2. He must give his whole time to the office.
3. The salary should be £600 per annum, travelling and hotel expenses.
4. The duties should be to act as salaried officer under By-Law 39, or as the Council may from time to time determine.

The Report of the Medical Charities Committee was then considered:

In pursuance of the resolution passed at the last meeting of the Medical Charities Committee in reference to the drafting of a "scheme for the management of the out-patient departments of hospitals," we have drafted the following as giving the main principles on which out-patient departments should be managed:

I. Notices should be prominently exhibited, and other suitable means adopted, with the view of informing intending patients that the benefits of the Department are restricted to those who are unable through poverty to pay for similar benefits without charitable assistance.

II. An officer shall be provided whose duty it shall be to make inquiries from all applicants for admission, and to enter particulars in a Register provided for that purpose. Such inquiries shall be supplemented by occasional investigations with a view to testing the accuracy of the replies made to the questions of the inquiry officer.

III. A Register should be kept in which should be entered the name, postal address, sex, age, occupation, and pecuniary position of each patient admitted, and in all cases as full information as possible should be entered under the head of pecuniary position.

IV. A "wage limit," or fixed rules as to the limit of pecuniary circumstances beyond which applicants will be considered inadmissible, should in every case be enacted, with due regard to local and general conditions; and, in accordance therewith, the Inquiry Officer should be instructed to exclude persons inadmissible by such rules except in cases of urgency.

V. General supervision should be exercised over the patients admitted to out-patient waiting-rooms, by a qualified doctor, with a view to excluding dangerous infectious cases, and affording early attention to cases in which delay is dangerous.

VI. No medical officer shall attend on more than a fixed number of fresh cases each day, and the limit shall be such as to insure a reasonable average space of time being devoted to each patient.

VII. When the number of applicants is greater than can be attended to, preference should be given to applicants (1) seriously ill, (2) bringing letters of recommendation from doctors or governors.

VIII. Suitable arrangements should be made whereby doctors might obtain the advantage of consultation with members of the staff in the case of persons whom they certify to be unable to pay the usual consultants fees. When the medical attendant is unable to attend personally he should send with the patient a sealed statement for the use of the consultant, and a small fee should be charged to cover the cost of forwarding a written opinion of the consultant to the medical attendant by whom the case was sent.

IX. Patients should be admitted to see the doctors in the order of their arrival, and no precedence should be given to any patient otherwise, except by the direct instructions of a medical officer.

X. Gratuities to porters and attendants in out-patient departments should be absolutely prohibited, and any porter or attendant receiving gratuities should be dismissed. Notices to the above effect should be exhibited.

XI. No charge, however small, should be made to out-patients, and extreme poverty should not be allowed to prevent applicants receiving attention.

XII. The out-patient departments of hospitals should co-operate with other institutions for the relief of the poor, and with doctors, clergy, and others working among the poor.

APPENDIX.

REPLIES HAVE BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE FOLLOWING INSTITUTIONS:—

1. Birmingham and Midland Hospital for Women.—Are carrying out most of the methods advised, but think the notices would hurt the patients' feelings.
2. Blackburn and East Lancashire Infirmary.—System largely in accord with our advice.
3. Bristol General Hospital.—Do not approve our recommendations, but do employ an inquiry officer.
4. Chelmsford Infirmary.—Say they are doing their best against abuse, but cannot co-operate further.
5. Coventry and Warwickshire Hospital.—Agree in the main, but cannot at present alter their rules.
6. Gateshead Children's Hospital.—Do not see their way to adopt recommendations, as funds are limited.
7. General Hospital, Cheltenham.—Cannot at present adopt principle of recommendations, but have committee to investigate patients admitted.
8. Hospital and Dispensary, Newark-on-Trent.—Consider the system of recommendations which is in force a sufficient guarantee.
9. Hospital for Women, Nottingham.—Is a part-paying hospital, but every precaution taken to prevent abuse.
10. Kidderminster Infirmary.—Precautions already taken against abuse, but cannot do as we suggest in so small a town.
11. St. George's Hospital for Skin Diseases, Liverpool.—Very small charity; have no difficulty in checking abuse.
12. Sunderland Eye Hospital.—Take every steps to see that the charity is not abused, but cannot exhibit the poster.
13. West Herts Infirmary, Hemel Hempstead.—Think there is no occasion for "joining Medical Charities Committee."
14. Windsor Royal Dispensary and Infirmary.—At present not prepared to adopt more stringent provisions than those already in force.
15. Wolverhampton and Staffordshire General Hospital.—Fully sympathize, but consider it not possible to move in the matter at present.

G. B. FERGUSON, M.D., Chairman.

Resolved: That the Report of the Medical Charities Committee be received and approved.

The Toast List as submitted by the Local Executive was then considered and approved.
