Correction

"What Makes a Psychiatrist?"—We regret that there was a printer's error in this book review (7 September, p. 606). The second sentence in column three should read: "The chapters on Freud, Jung, Adler, Rank, Groddeck, and other 'Great Theorists' are on the whole well done."

Notice to Authors

When original articles and letters for publication are not submitted exclusively to the British Medical Journal this must be stated.

Correspondence on editorial business should be addressed to the Editor, British Medical Journal, B.M.A. House, Tavistock Square, London W.C.1, Telephone: 01-387 4499. Telegrams: Aitology, London W.C.1.

Authors wanting reprints of their articles should notify the Publishing Manager, B.M.A. House, Tavistock Square, W.C.1, on receipt of proofs.

Subscriptions

Members' subscriptions should be sent to the Secretary of the British Medical Association, B.M.A. House, London, or to the Scottish Secretary, B.M.A. Scottish Office, Drumsheugh Gardens, Edinburgh.

Doctors who are not members of the B.M.A. can subscribe to the B.M.J. The rates for doctors resident in the United Kingdom and abroad are given on the first page of the classified advertisements. These include the rates for the Australian edition and the North American "Air Express", which are available to both members and non-members of the B.M.A.

Classified Advertisements

Doctors Abroad.—Copies of the appointment vacancies advertised in the B.M.J. can be sent by airmail on request. The minimum cost is 3s. per week, for which copies of vacancies in up to five sections of the classified advertisements will be sent. The cost of each further section after five is 1s. Orders for specific grades in any section cannot be accepted. Payments should be enclosed with the order.

Details of rates, etc., for classified advertisements appear on the first page of the classified section.
