Primary care team of the year: saving money and improving care

In this Feature (BMJ 2014;348:g1753, doi:10.1136/bmj.g1753), the BMJ's summary of the East Midlands Ambulance Service NHS Trust's entry for the primary care team of the year award contained an error. Our summary of this entry in the sixth paragraph stated that "general practitioners mostly book urgent calls for ambulances on the basis of a telephone consultation."

However, we should have said that some urgent calls for ambulances from GPs are based solely on a telephone consultation.
