

OBITUARIES

John A Anderson

R B Malcolm

Former general practitioner Shildon, County Durham (b 1926; q Durham 1949), died from congestive cardiac failure on 25 March 2014.

John A Anderson lived all his life in Shildon, where his father, P V Anderson, was a partner in the long established family practice. After qualifying, John married Sheila and did his national service in the Royal Army Medical Corps in Jamaica, after which he joined his father and brother in law, Frank Hutchinson who had married his sister, Pat, also a doctor.

John retired in 1988 after giving 37 years of service to the local community, where he was very much respected.

In his retirement, he continued to do medical boards for some years. He and his wife enjoyed walking in the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales, visiting his son and family in America, and spending time with his daughter and family. Sheila died in 2013. John leaves his son, his daughter, and four grandchildren.

Cite this as: BMJ 2014;349:g6320

© BMJ Publishing Group Ltd 2014