Preparedness explains some differences between Haiti and Nepal's response to earthquake

In this article (BMJ 2015;350:h3059, doi:10.1136/bmj.h3059), Stanford Emergency Medicine International (<http://emed.stanford.edu/education/international.html>) was incorrectly referred to as “Stanford University Medicine International.”

The error was introduced at the editing stage, for which we apologise.
