ELEMENTS OF PRACTICAL MEDICINE

By ALFRED H. CARTER, M.D.Lond., M.R.C.P.Lond.,
Physician to the Queen’s Hospital, Birmingham; Emeritus Professor of Physiology, Queen’s College, Birmingham; Examiner in Medicine for the University of Aberdeen, etc.

This book is, in our opinion, an admirable one. There is in it a clearness of detail, especially in regard to treatment, therapeutic as well as operative, which makes the surgeon of wide experience, and which will certainly make the book a favourite. — Ophthalmic Review.

"We know of no other text-book which contains so much admirably arranged matter in so small a compass. The therapeutical index at the end is very complete, and will be found of great value to practitioners." — Birmingham Medical Review.

Now Ready, Illustrated with Wood Engravings, Colour Tests, &c., post 8vo, 10s. 6d.

HANDBOOK OF DISEASES OF THE EYE AND THEIR TREATMENT.

By HENRY R. SWANZY, M.A., M.B., F.R.C.S., Examiner in Ophthalmic Surgery, University of Dublin; Surgeon to the National Eye and Ear Infirmary, Dublin; Ophthalmic Surgeon at the Adelaide Hospital, Dublin.

This handbook is, in our opinion, admirable. There is in it a clearness of detail, especially in regard to treatment, therapeutic as well as operative, which makes the surgeon of wide experience, and which will certainly make the book a favourite. — Ophthalmic Review.

"On the whole we most heartily congratulate Mr. Swanzey and the Dublin School on the production of a book which was much needed, and which contains in a condensed, yet most readable form, all the latest and most authoritative teaching on the subject which it treats." —Dublin Medical Journal.

Now Ready, Illustrated, Crown 8vo, 6s. 6d.
