INSTITUTE POSTGRADUATE WEST MIDDLESEX OXFORD UNIVERSITY. At
SOCIETY WILLESDEN HOSPITAL, LONDON. At UNIVERSITY. At ABERDEEN MARY'S SOCIETY. 9.50
WESTMINSTER Hall, Spondylosis.
Isaacs: Psychiatry
LONDON. 9.30
cal Sarcoidosis
p.m.,
First
Two Infirmary,
Neurological Diagnosis.
staff recreation Function.
5
Smith: Arbovirus Epidemiology W.
Established Research in of MEDICINE
PSYCHOSOMATIC RESEARCH. At
MEDICAL PSYCHIATRY. 5.30
@
HOSPITAL.
Arnienorrhoea.
J.
H.
Professor Blaschko, (consultant
Professor Pallis: Value
D.
O.H.A. Smith: Arbovirus Epidemiology
J.
B.
Thomas,
D.P.M.
Dr. B. M. Laurance, F.R.C.S., M.B., F.F.A.R.C.S. (consultant in anaesthetics, Devon and Exeter clinical area (Exe Vale)); G. A. Richardson, M.D., M.R.C.P. (consultant surgery and internist in diseases of the chest, Devon and Exeter clinical area (Exe Vale)); J. E. Phillips, M.B., C.R.C.P.C., D.P.M. (consultant psychiatric medicine, Devon and Exeter clinical area (Exe Vale)).
SOUTH WESTERN REGIONAL HOSPITAL BOARD—J.
T.
D.
D.
Thompson (consultant surgery, Brixton).
UNITED MANCHESTER HOSPITALS—C.
G.

BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL

16 May 1970

Royal College of Surgeons of England—4.30 p.m., Arnold demonstration by Dr. J. E. Eastoe: Some Vertebrate Building Materials.

Royal Northern Hospital Postgraduate Centre—10.15 a.m., One-day course on Medical Ophthalmology.

Royal Army Medical College—5 p.m., Dr. S. Gordon: Commentary on Aims and Methods of Scientific Research in Medicine and Surgery.

St. Charles's Hospital Medical Centre, London. 8-45 p.m., Dr. M. Wilkinson: Cervical Spinal Surgery.

West Middlesex Hospital—4 p.m., Dr. G. I. M. Swyer: Secondary Amenorrhoea.

Wednesday, 20 May
Gwent Postgraduate Medical Centre—At Royal Gwent Hospital, Newport. 2.15 p.m., Dr. J. A. Tunbridge: Medical Aspects of Sarcoidosis and Crohn's Disease.

Hospitals.

Tunbridge Wells Postgraduate Medical Centre—At Tunbridge Wells and Tonbridge Hospital. 12.45 p.m., Dr. R. T. Truscott: Immunosuppressive Therapy.

Whittington Hospital, London. At Academic Centres. 11 a.m., Professor G. V. R. Butler: Platelet Function.

Willesden General Hospital Medical Society. 10.30 a.m., Professor M. H. S. Wallis: The Imagination.

Royal Postgraduate Medical School—11 a.m., Professor D. E. C. Pollard: Clinical Cases in Neurological Diagnosis.

London Jewish Hospital Medical Society. At 11 a.m., Professor D. M. I. Luria: Annual address by Professor W. J. H. Butterfield.

Hounslow Gillespie Lecture. At Edinburgh Royal Infirmary, surgery lecture theatre, 5 p.m., Professor B. E. C. Nordin: Is Osteoporois a Disease?

Royal Society. 9.50 a.m., Discussion meeting by Professor H. K. Blaschko, F.R.S., and Dr. A. D. Smith: Subcellular and Macromolecular aspects of Transplantation.

Royal Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene. At Macon House, London W.1, 7.30 p.m., Symposium opened by Dr. C. E. Gordon Smith: Arbovirus Epidemiology associated with Established and Developing Race Culture.

St. Mary's Hospital Medical School. At St. Mary's Hospital, London W.1, 8.30 a.m., Symposium opened by Dr. C. E. Gordon Smith: Arbovirus Epidemiology associated with Established and Developing Race Culture.

Society for Psychosomatic Research. At Royal Society of Medicine. 2.30 p.m., Memorial lecture by Professor A. H. Crisp: Some Psychosomatic Aspects of Cancer.

Westminster Medical School. At Page Street lecture theatre, 5.30 p.m., Professor L. F. Le Queux in Common Bile Duct.

Friday, 22 May
Newcastle upon Tyne Regional Neurological Centre. At Newcastle General Hospital, 5.30 p.m., Professor F. M. Priestley (Pennsylvania): D.N.A. Synthesis and Myogenesis.

Royal Postgraduate Medical School—10 a.m., Royal Society. 9.30 a.m., Discussion meeting by Professor H. K. Blaschko, F.R.S., and Dr. A. D. Smith: Subcellular and Macromolecular aspects of Transplantation.