Don't worry about the drug industry's profits when considering a waiver on covid-19 intellectual property rights

This article (BMJ 2022;376:e067367, doi:) has been updated online to correct an error: The global drug industry's share of total net profits made by all companies listed on the stock market rose from around 3% in the mid-1970s to a staggering 10% at its peak in the early 2000s, not 2020s as previously stated.
