INDEX.

West Norfolk and Lynn Hospital, 81, 608
Williams, H. L., Tincture of Aconite in Toothache, 272
Dr. J., An Essay on the use of Narcotics and other remedial Agents to produce Sleep in the Treatment of Insanity—(Review,) 101
Dr. P. H., On Medical Reform, 19
On the objects of the Provincial Medical and Surgical Association, 352
Wilson, H., Case of Uterine Haemorrhage in which Galvanism was applied, 193
On the Influence of the Rhubarb Plant in producing Oxalate of Lime in Urine, 413

Wilson, Dr. J., Medical Notes on China—(Review,) 218, 243
Wood, J. E., On Placenta Praevia, 59, 75, 84, 95
Workman, J. W., On the Conduct of the Poor-Law Authorities to their Medical Officers, 470
Worthington, W. C., Case of Sanguineous Apoplexy in a Child, 179

Y.
Yorkshire Branch Association, 284, 296; Annual Meeting of 313

ERRATA.

Page 608, Heading of the Table, for "Amputation," read "Operation."
Case 1— for "Ankle, after hemorrhage," read "Ankle. After haemorrhage, July 15."
——— for "Operation—out door patient, &c., read "Amputation below the knee.† Ligature of femoral artery, July 17."
——— Case 12, for "Amputation of thigh, &c., read "Amputation of thigh, Jan. 3. After bleeding, Jan. 11."
——— Case 19, for "lesion of vessels, &c.," read "lesion of vessels. After bleeding, August 31."
——— for "August, 30, ligature, &c.," read "Ligature of femoral artery, September 5."
Page 609, col. 2, line 17 from the bottom, dele "at present."
Page 610, col. 2, line 30, for "has," read "had,"
——— line 37, for "was elevated; left, read "was elevated and left."
Page 611, col. 1, line 6, for "horas" read "horis."

It is necessary to state that the author of the paper in which these errata occur, is fully aware that his MS. is somewhat difficult to decipher; and in consequence of the proof sent to him for correction not being received in time, the errors in the table could not be rectified.